

School Safety and Anti-Violence Awareness Week

October 16-22, 2022

During this week, New Jersey schools are required to provide opportunities to discuss methods for keeping students safe. Age appropriate lessons will be shared with each grade level. Activities include, but are not limited to, student discussion about conflict resolution, bullying prevention and school safety.

