

Cyberbullying: The Invisible Risk

- Cyberbullying Risks and what to look for:
 - Repeated negative text messages
 - Hurtful instant messages or Snapchat conversations
 - Anonymous threats through Instant Messaging or Emails
 - Messages that contain concepts of being “Cancelled”
 - All social media accounts and creations being ignored, removed or criticized
 - Being “Cancelled” is a form of group shaming performed on social media
 - False social media accounts being created in order to spread gossip or damage reputations
 - Posting and forwarding private messages and/or pictures/videos to others
